OFFICE OF LEGISLATIVE COUNSEL

Wednesday - 29 October 1969

1. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Returned the call of Roger Majak, Legislative Assistant to Representative Jonathan Bingham (D., N.Y.), who wanted to meet with me to discuss an article on the CIA to be written by the Congressman for a popular magazine. Majak said they wanted to deal with CIA operations and the congressional role therein and in that connection said they would like information on the Members and committees we contact on a regular basis and those contacted on an irregular basis. I told him that at a minimum we would draw together some material that he might find valuable reading before outlining the article, including floor debates on the general subject of the legislative oversight of the CIA. Majak said this would be fine and I said we would try to get back to him in the next several days. (Later in the day [REDACTED] OCI, informed [REDACTED] OLC, that Majak had contacted [REDACTED] who is a personal friend, for the same purpose.)

2. (Internal Use Only - LLM) Ted Swift, in the office of Senator Robert C. Byrd (D., W.Va.), called referring to a floor speech to be made by the Senator on the November Moratorium and asked for such information as we could properly supply on the use of the Moratorium by Hanoi. [REDACTED] is assembling suitable material.

3. (Confidential - GLC) Following instructions from the Director, I called Mr. Walter Pincus, on the Symington Subcommittee staff, to advise him of [REDACTED] plans to leave for Laos this afternoon. Mr. Pincus said there were no outstanding items concerning [REDACTED] as far as the Subcommittee was concerned. (See Memo for the Record.)
